HAN University of Applied Sciences, often abbreviated as HAN, is a vocational university of applied sciences with campuses in Arnhem and Nijmegen. The two cities are 15km apart, and are under two hours by train from Amsterdam. Visitors to this part of the country will be charmed by the typically Dutch scenery of wide rivers, bridges, dikes and polders, set against a background of woody hills and small towns. StFX students have the opportunity to take courses from the Faculty of Health and Social Studies, which feature a Public Health Program offered in the Fall semester, and a Sport and Nutrition program offered in the Winter semester.
