

THE UNIVERSITY OF St. FRANCIS XAVIER faithfully mindful of that saying of St. Paul “Whatsoever things are true” while it publicly bestows the crowning award on deserving students to whom it thereafter entrusts the mission of leaders among their fellow citizens after a vote of its Faculty has decreed to honor with this degree of and all rights, privileges and honors flowing from it

.....

who taking thought for his/her own life’s work has duly completed the course of studies prescribed by its constitution and successfully passed the examinations

Let this parchment stamped with the seal of the same University and signed by its President, Chancellor and Dean be a witness of this fact to all who read this

Given at Antigonish in Nova Scotia
On the of A.D.

Dean Chancellor President